

KSBTP Seeks Investigators

The Kansas State Board of Technical Professions is currently seeking licensed professionals in architecture, engineering, geology, land surveying, and landscape architecture to serve as investigators on behalf of the Board regarding complaints concerning the unlicensed practice of a technical profession and/or the failure of a licensed professional to conform his or her practice to the requisite professional standards. If interested, please click here for more information.

Published 1/4/19